THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Matthew	25	1-13
Monday	Proverbs	6	6-15
Tuesday	Psalms	103	11-18
Wednesday	Luke	12	16-21
Thursday	James	4	13-17
Friday	Isaiah	1	1-6
Saturday	Isaiah	6	1-12

The folks who lived in the day of the hourglass had a psychological advantage. They could see time passing.

And as each fine grain slipped through the neck of the glass, a man's conscience would whisper within him: less time left!

When we look at a clock its hands seem motionless. Is that why millions put off the important decisions that ought to be made right now?

Whatever its cause, procrastination is a disease. It lulls the senses into indolence. It wastes our energy on trivial pursuits, while important tasks remain undone. Especially it attacks the soul, tempting man to believe that there will be plenty of time later to tend to his spiritual needs.

But the cure is simple... and immediate. Just set the alarm clock and begin the New Year with worship in your Church. You'll soon be facing every important task with eagerness and courage and faith!

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting Saturday at noon for the wedding of Miss Mary Frances Ladner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Joseph Ladner of Bay St. Louis and Mr. Wilmer Ervin Seymour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Seymour of Biloxi.

The Rev. Father Kevin Reid was celebrant of the Nuptial Mass and performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Theodore Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Mauffray, accompanied by Professor Joseph Hemmerbach on the organ, sang a program of hymns including Ave Maria, Panis Angelicus and O Lord I am Not Worthy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of satin and lace. The fitted bodice featured a rounded neckline trimmed with lace and embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her finger-tip veil of tulle fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white mistle topped with a white orchid.

Miss Jerry Ann Ladner was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Judy Compagnon and Jo Ann McCulloch of Bay St. Louis and Misses Seymour of Biloxi.

The attendants were candy pink velvet street length frocks fashioned with rounded necklines and fitted bodices trimmed with a bow at the back of the waist.

line. They wore matching slippers and their headpieces were veiled in white tulle. They each carried an American Beauty rose.

Candy Ladner, flower girl, wore a floor length dress fashioned on lines similar to the brides.

For the reception which followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Mrs. Ladner chose a rose colored suit, matching hat and brown accessories. A corsage of white carnations trimmed her shoulder.

The mother of the groom wore a blue wool ensemble and black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's table, covered with a snow-white cloth, was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells and surrounded with white blossoms and greenery. Silver candleholders holding white tapers were on either side.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour are making their home in an apartment on Main Street.

TEST COMPARES TWO SYSTEMS OF HANDLING STEERS

STATE COLLEGE, Miss.—When winter grazing stops, so does the steers' need for food, and then wonder if they should give the steers additional food on pasture or move them to dry lot feeding while waiting for the pasture to recover.

In a recent Mississippi Experiment Station test, Annual Bandmaster Leon Williams found little difference in the two systems of management.

Mr. Williams left one group of steers on winter pasture for 250 days from October 24 to May 22. When grazing became short during this time, he provided slugs, alfalfa, corn and cottonseed meal for the steers on pasture, discontinuing the feed when grass became available. Feed was required for a 30-day period. Another group of steers was moved to dry lot and fed the same ration during the 30-day period of grass shortage.

There was practically no difference in the performance of the two groups, Mr. Williams said. One group gained 1.97 pounds daily and the other 1.84. Gains per steer in one group were 220 pounds compared to 223 in the other. It was observed, however, that steers gained more slowly while in dry lot but they gained more rapidly when returned to grass.

Selling price for the two groups almost equal, with a slight advantage for the steers that remained on pasture. No damage was done to the soil by constant grazing, but Mr. Williams says under extreme weather conditions removal of all or part of the cattle may be necessary to prevent soil damage.

Page-Thornton Wedding

Miss Ethel Marie Thornton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thornton, and James William Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Page, all of Bay St. Louis, were married at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Cedar Point Baptist Church with the Rev. John O. Cubvas officiating.

White roses and greenery decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua blue wool suit, white hat with veil and matching accessories. A shoulder bouquet of white carnations completed her ensemble.

Miss Dolores Ann Thornton was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a two piece suit of wool, white feathered hat and a corsage of pink camellias. Mrs. James Page was her sister's best man.

A reception followed at the home of the groom's parents in Washington, D.C.

The mother of the bride chose for the occasion a royal blue dress and black accessories. A corsage of pink camellias trimmed her shoulder.

Mrs. Sidney Woods served the cake and Mrs. M. Storey presided at the punch table.

The bride, who attended Bay High School, is employed at Kern's Store. The groom, who attended Bay High, is self-employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Page are at home on Washington Road.
